Licensee shall indemnify, defend, or at its option settle, any third party claim or suit against Grayshift based on a claim: (i) of any breach of this Agreement by Licensee, its affiliates, employees, agents, successors and assigns; and (ii) relating to or based on the activities conducted by Licensee or its Authorized Users, using or that used the Software and Product; and Licensee shall pay any final judgment entered against Grayshift in any such proceeding or agreed to in settlement. Grayshift will notify Licensee in writing of such claim or suit and give all information and assistance reasonably requested by Licensee or such designee.

TERM AND TERMINATION. This Agreement shall continue until terminated as set forth herein. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the license to any Software is only during the license term applicable to such Software. The license term shall be determined in the Order. Grayshift may also terminate this Agreement immediately if Licensee violates any provision of this Agreement, without refund or reimbursement. Any termination of this Agreement shall terminate the licenses granted hereunder. Upon termination of this Agreement for any reason, Licensee shall destroy all hardware that contains copies of the Software, and shall so certify to Grayshift that such actions have occurred. Except for the license and except as otherwise expressly provided herein, the terms of this Agreement shall survive termination.

CONFIDENTIALITY. Each of the parties agrees to maintain in confidence any non-public information of the other party, whether written or otherwise, disclosed by the other party in the course of performance of this Agreement that a party knows or reasonably should know is considered confidential by the disclosing party ("Confidential Information"). The receiving party shall not disclose, use, transmit, inform or make available to any entity, person or body any of the Confidential Information, except as a necessary part of performing its obligations hereunder, and shall take all such actions as are reasonably necessary and appropriate to preserve and protect the Confidential Information and the parties' respective rights therein, at all times exercising at least a reasonable level of care. Each party agrees to restrict access to the Confidential Information of the other party to those employees or agents who require access in order to perform hereunder, and, except as otherwise provided, neither party shall make Confidential Information available to any other person or entity without the prior written consent of the other party.

Confidential Information shall not include any information that is (i) already known to the receiving party at the time of the disclosure; (ii) publicly known at the time of the disclosure or becomes publicly known through no wrongful act or failure of the receiving party; (iii) subsequently disclosed to the receiving party on a non-confidential basis by a third party not having a confidential relationship with the other party hereto that rightfully acquired such information; or (iv) communicated to a third party by the receiving party with the express written consent of the other party hereto. A disclosure of Confidential Information that is legally compelled to be disclosed pursuant to a subpoena, summons, order or other judicial or governmental process shall not be considered a breach of this Agreement; provided the receiving party provides prompt notice of any such subpoena, order, or the like to the other party so that such party will have the opportunity to obtain a protective order or otherwise oppose the disclosure.

Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement for any reason, each party shall promptly return to the other party, or destroy, as the parties agree, all copies of the other party's Confidential Information. All copies, notes or other derivative material relating to the Confidential Information shall be promptly retrieved or destroyed, as agreed, and no such material shall be retained or used by the receiving party in any form or for any reason.

The failure of Grayshift to act with respect to a breach of this Agreement by Licensee or others does not constitute a waiver and shall not limit Grayshift's rights with respect to such breach or any subsequent breaches. This Agreement is personal to Licensee and may not be assigned or transferred for any reason whatsoever (including, without limitation, by operation of law, merger, reorganization, or as a result of an acquisition or change of control involving Licensee) without Grayshift's consent and any action or conduct in violation of the foregoing shall be void and without effect. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of Georgia, U.S.A. without regard to the conflicts of laws provisions thereof, and without regard to the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods.
